Description

A truly eye catching example of quality Arts and Crafts silver. This superb piece dates from the Edwardian period and is in the form of a bowl. The bowl is expertly hammered and raised from a single sheet of silver, with wide sloping sides. Texture is added to the base with individual punch marks and the bowl is fitted with four exquisite shaped handles. Each handle is attached by three studs and heightened with stunning purple enamel oval cabochons, which really elevate the piece further. A fantastic example of desirable and collectable Arts & Crafts silver. Dimensions below.
