Description

Victorian mahogany shaving stand, dating from around 1870. Crafted from high-quality solid mahogany, this antique shaving stand features a beautifully turned pedestal base with tripod legs, and a circular, adjustable mirror framed in rich wood. The central tray provides practical space for grooming accessories, making it ideal for use in both traditional bathrooms and vintage-inspired interiors. With its refined craftsmanship and warm patina, this piece serves as both a functional grooming stand and a decorative 19th-century antique. Its compact, freestanding design makes it a versatile addition to bedrooms and dressing rooms.
