Description

A beautifully elegant two-strand choker necklace dating from the 1960s, featuring luminous cultured pearls and a striking decorative clasp. This classic piece is hand-knotted with creamy ivory cultured pearls, each with a rich lustre and smooth finish. The eye-catching clasp is crafted in 9ct gold, stamped 375, and designed in an intricate open lattice style, set with vivid red garnets and framed by delicate seed pearls. The necklace sits gracefully at the collarbone and is a timeless example of vintage refinement – perfect for both special occasions and elegant daywear.
