Description

Adrian Heath Signed Abstract Watercolour "Form in Motion" A rare and important original work by leading British abstract artist Adrian Heath, beautifully presented and ready to hang. Description: Offered for sale is an original abstract watercolour by Adrian Heath (1920–1992), titled Form in Motion, signed and dated in the lower right corner. This work represents Heath at the height of his artistic maturity, exploring dynamic form, rhythm, and space through the medium of watercolour. Executed in a sophisticated modernist palette, the composition features bold diagonals, vertical structures, and angular shapes that suggest movement, architecture, or even figures in motion—hallmarks of Heath's signature abstract style. Medium & Technique: Medium: Watercolour on paper Style: Abstract, Modern British Palette: Warm ochres, slate blues, steel greys, ivory tones, and rich blacks Technique: A combination of transparent washes, gestural marks, and sharp-edged forms, showcasing both technical control and expressive freedom. Artist Biography – Adrian Heath: Adrian Heath was a pivotal figure in post-war British abstraction. Educated at the Slade School of Fine Art, Heath was a WW...
