Description

William IV rosewood center table featuring a circular tilting top, a spreading cylindrical column, a nulled socle, an incurved triform base, fluted feet, and brass casters. This lovely piece is in very good, clean condition, showcasing an appealing antique patina. It bears the occasional knock and chip, which add character without detract from its beauty—remarkable for a table over 190 years old. Dimensions: 72 cm in height, 122 cm in diameter, circa 1830.
