Description

A truly elegant and original Victorian bracelet, crafted in rich 15 carat yellow gold, and dating to circa 1880. This timeless piece features a striking design of alternating turquoise cabochons and seed pearls set to the front, each collet-set within an oval gold mount, joined by a classic curb link chain. The charming turquoise stones and delicate seed pearls offer a beautiful contrast, evoking the refined style of the Victorian era. The decorative front section flows seamlessly into the gold curb link chain which continues around the wrist, fastening securely with a concealed tongue-and-groove box clasp, further protected by a safety chain. 3 turquoise stones (approx. 3.5mm each) 2 seed pearls (approx. 2.5mm each) Length: 18.5 cm / 7¼ inches Width at front: 7.5 mm Concealed box clasp with safety chain Stamped '15ct' on reverse of clasp Weight: 9 grams Circa 1880 Presented in the fitted box shown This bracelet is in excellent original condition, showing only the most minimal signs of age-related wear. Please refer to the high-resolution photographs provided, which form part of the description. A fine and wearable example of Victorian jewellery, this bracelet...
