Description

This elegant Victorian ebonized amboyna breakfront credenza is in wonderful antique condition and comes with a working key. The central door features a Wedgwood Jasperware medallion, framed by brass and intricate inlays. Inside, there is a single removable shelf for storage. On either side, three open shelves with mirrored backs create a sense of depth and refinement. The cabinet doors are adorned with brass and inlaid details, adding to its sophisticated look. Grand Corinthian columns and gold embellishments complete the striking design, making this a remarkable statement piece.
