Description

Handsome arts & crafts hall stand / robe made from solid oak in stunning antique condition. This is a very useful antique that has everything you will need in your hall, at one side a mirror to check on your appearance before you go out, decorative hooks and an umbrella/ stick stand with original drip tray. To the right a full length cupboard with hooks for coats with space above for hats. The colouring and patina of this hall stand is gorgeous and the graining is wonderful. It is in excellent condition with only historic knocks and marks which are to be expected on a item of it's age however these only add to the character and charm of this very functional antique hall stand. This is striking piece of antique furniture that will be a wonderful addition to any entrance.
