Description

This bookcase is in good condition as we have professionally restored it and painted it in a lovely grey paint with a red undercoat. The interior is a light grey. The bookcase would look well in an old or modern property amongst similar antique pine furniture for any storage purpose. It would look great in a victorian town house. The bookcase stands on square back legs and round turned front bun feet supporting the main section. There is one large square door to the bottom. There is a key to lock the door and behind the door is a shelf. Above this there is one large glazed door and a key to lock the door. Behind the door are adjustable shelves. The top has a standard graduated cornice. This is in two pieces and is stunning please buy with confidence! The height is 197cm, the width is 83cm and the depth is 44cm. The internal depth at the top is 20cm.
