Description

Antique Edwardian Mahogany Armchair with Inlaid Wheel Back – c.1900 Step into timeless elegance with this exquisite Edwardian Mahogany Armchair, dating from around 1900. This piece showcases the refined craftsmanship of the Edwardian period, featuring a striking inlaid wheel-back design with radiating spokes and a central oval medallion in contrasting satinwood. The gracefully curved swept arms complement the tapered fluted front legs and turned stretchers, ensuring both visual appeal and structural stability. The upholstered seat is adorned in a traditional floral needlepoint fabric, offering vintage charm and comfort, bordered with classic brass studding. Whether used as a statement accent chair, a desk companion, or part of a period-style interior, this chair brings a sense of history and sophistication to any room.
