Description

A truly exquisite antique diamond cluster ring, crafted in rich 18ct yellow gold, dating to the Edwardian era, circa 1910. This beautiful piece features a charming old cut diamond set to the centre, encircled by eleven glistening old cut diamonds, all securely peg set in a finely chiselled white gold star-shaped setting that showcases their brilliance to superb effect. The intricate design is raised above a striking yellow gold corbeil and further enhanced by elegant scrolling shoulders, adding to its period charm and refined detail. This marvellous ring would make a most special engagement ring or a treasured heirloom piece. Gemstone Details: Central old cut diamond approx. 3.5mm Surrounding 11 x 2mm old cut diamonds Total estimated diamond weight: approx. 0.50ct (visually impressive due to the elevated setting) Diamond colour: G/H Clarity: SI Dimensions: Head of ring: 11mm diameter Height above finger: 4.5mm Ring size: UK P / US 8 (easily resizable) Shank stamped: 18ct Weight: 3.8 grams In excellent original condition, this enchanting ring is offered in the presentation box pictured.
