Description

Exquisite Edwardian 15ct Gold Peridot & Seed Pearl Necklace | Art Nouveau – Art Deco Elegance | Circa 1915 A captivating example of early 20th-century design, this antique necklace is a celebration of both Art Nouveau fluidity and emerging Art Deco geometry. Handcrafted in rich 15ct yellow gold, its graceful silhouette and delicate detailing embody the refined taste of the Edwardian era. The pendant is composed of four articulated sections, drawing the eye with their elegant symmetry and fine craftsmanship. Three vibrant lime-green peridots, collet set with delicate milgrain edging, provide a lively sparkle, complemented by three soft, creamy silver seed pearls. The gentle swag chain detail adds a romantic touch, evoking the drape and fluidity so loved in Art Nouveau jewellery. The necklace is completed by a fine link chain secured with a traditional split pin and barrel clasp – all original and in excellent condition. Details: Peridots: 6mm, 4.6mm & 4mm Seed Pearls: Approx. 2mm Pendant Drop: 5cm Chain Length: 18" (46cm) Weight: 5.9 grams Hallmark: Stamped 15ct gold Date: Circa 1915 Condition: Excellent condition Presentation: Supplied in the box illustrated This ra...
