Description

These exquisite vintage diamond earrings are a timeless expression of mid-century glamour. Dating to the 1950s, each earring is crafted in 18ct white gold and fashioned into a delicate floral cluster, reminiscent of a daisy in full bloom. Set with approximately 1.5 carats of dazzling brilliant cut diamonds, the stones are closely set to maximise their sparkle and presence. The quality of the diamonds is superb — colour G, clarity VVS1 — offering brilliance and fire with every movement. Designed for non-pierced ears, the earrings feature secure and comfortable clip fittings, true to the style of the period. Whether worn for a special occasion or added to a fine vintage collection, they exude understated luxury.
