Description

This late 19th-century French bureau plat is a stunning example of mahogany craftsmanship. The piece features a rich mahogany finish and an elegant inset leather top, enhancing its sophistication. With two spacious drawers adorned with intricate ormolu handles, it offers both style and functionality. The ornate detailing on the corners and the gracefully turned tapering, fluted legs emphasize the artistry of the period. The overall design reflects a perfect balance of elegance and practicality, making it an exceptional addition to any study or office space. This bureau plat is not just a piece of furniture; it's a statement of refined taste. Batch 84 AS TEKZZ
