Description

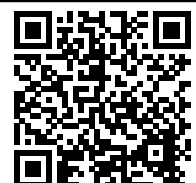

An exceptional, fine and impressive antique Chinese Export Silver and cherry wood based vase; an addition to our ornamental Asian silverware collection. This impressive antique Chinese Export silver vase has a tapering cylindrical rounded form with a plain waisted neck. The surface of each vase is embellished with a fine and impressive embossed rural oriental scene, all on a matte background. The decoration to the body incorporates a vacant shield shaped cartouche. The vase is fitted with two exceptional handpieces modelled in the form of three-dimensional undulating dragons. The figural pedestal of the vase is represented by a bulbous dragon head design. This 19th century Chinese silver vase is fitted to the original cherry wood base; the vase is fitted with an internal silver dowel pin which provides a concealed attachment to the plinth, securing to the underside with a screw fitment. The hallmarks struck to the screw fitment of this impressive antique silver vase includes: Maker's mark: C.S (Cum Shing, (Canton & Shanghai)) Retailer's mark: Ren Xin (Canton) A 19th-century Chinese silver vase is a distinguished gift or collectible, valued for its intricate crafts...
