Description

A Lovely Pair of Victorian Adjustable Brass Student's Candle Lamps Each lamp features a classic domed green glass shade, held by a circular brass lip that can be adjusted via a turned brass thumb-screw. Below the adjustable candle holder is mounted on a square brass rod, which is supported by a circular stepped base combining practical design with a traditional aesthetic. In good condition for their age. One nozzle is missing its drip pan, and one shade has a small chip, though it does not adversely affect the overall appearance.
