Description

A 19th Century Country House Painted Pine Irish Dresser, 162cm wide, 2 Door Base Cupboard. A handsome farmhouse kitchen dresser, believed to be Irish mid 19th century with a later painted white decoration, showing traces of existing earlier paint beneath, the buyer may choose to dry scrape it back. The single, unified piece with some ornate elements implies an Irish dresser, well constructed in pine as a single piece, the upper plate rack does not detach, a structurally excellent antique country kitchen dresser with 2 lower hinged door cupboards below 2 drawers, stained bun handles and boarded plate rack over. A mid 19th century vernacular dresser, later painted with shaped ornate cornice, featuring 3 shelves and 3 vertical lines of plate racks. A fine antique country dresser, in mostly original, unrestored or altered condition, later painted, the handles may be later. Dimensions Width 162cm Height 200cm Depth 49cm A fine country house antique dresser of both practical use and considerable decorative appeal, an interior design piece that can complement a classic or contemporary space.
