Description

A lovely example of an antique solid sterling silver box profusely decorated with repoussé work scrolls, leaves and birds around a central cartouche. It is a good quality piece with a hinged lid and a gilt lined interior. It is clearly hallmarked for London, 1901 and the maker Charles Edwards. It weighs approximately 133g. The base is stamped for the retailer "Searle & Co. 78 & 79 Lombard Street. London". It is in good condition for its age and displays well. It has picked up some small knocks and marks and there are a couple of small dinks here and there but no major damages and it displays beautifully. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
