Description

A well-proportioned mid 19th century mahogany bergère library chair. The shaped scroll back has a curved moulded top rail with roundel details to either side. Swept arms rest on turned supports, with neat cane work to the seat and back panels. The chair stands on turned front legs and outswept rear legs, all terminating in original brass castors. Item Ref; M-6055 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 95.5cm / Width – 57cm / Depth – 72.5cm / Seat Height – 40cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition overall, with signs of age and use. There is surface wear throughout, including age-related marks and scratches. Some splitting is visible to the sides, along with areas of loss to the front and arms. The cane is in excellent condition with no damage and a good, even colour. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home.
