Description

Antique silver Langendorf pocket watch, 1928. The watch has a seven jewel stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover which has a long service inscription from ICI Kynoch Ltd. Imperial Chemical Industries (ICI) incorporated the ammunition manufacturer Kynoch, which was initially known as George Kynoch & Co. in 1926. Kynoch became a key part of ICI's Metals Division, particularly its Birmingham site, and was involved in significant production of semi-fabricated non-ferrous metals, ammunition, and other products, especially during World War II. The Kynoch brand continued to be used for sporting cartridges within ICI. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside both of the case backs for Birmingham 1928, together with a maker's mark for the Birmingham case maker Aaron Dennison. The case is in good condition, just minor marking around the edge, nothing too serious at all. The glass lens is in good condition, just a couple of small marks. The dial is signed Langendorf. The Langendorf Watch Company produced watches in Langendorf, Switzer...
