Description

Rare Lister 1920's Teak Garden Dining Set – Most Expensive Model A very rare, curvy and shapely set of English solid teak garden dining table and four chairs by Lister, this is the most expensive design they ever made. Not only is the dining table shapely, the dining chairs are too with a lovely raked and comfortable back rest. Forms a neat cube when not in use. In superb, solid and very intact condition, just been hand cleaned but will silver down very quickly to a lovely grey colour. A rare and very good example, only ever had one other set in over 30 years. These English antique garden dining sets were sometimes retailed by Heals of London. Dimensions Height: 75cm (29.76") Width: 95cm (37.70") Depth: 95cm (37.70")
