Description

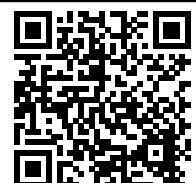

A very unusual and rare Victorian antique silver inkwell, fashioned as a snuff mull. Made in Aberdeen by James Rettie and hallmarked in the Edinburgh Assay Office in 1893. It has a full set of hallmarks inside the gilded lid along with a removable glass ink pot. There is a vacant cartouch on the front and a quartz stone on the top. The lid is profusely cast with thistles and leaves. The horn is mounted on a round wooden stand. It's extremely collectable and in excellent undamaged condition. WEIGHT; 230 grams or 7.5 ozst approx. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
