Description

A masterpiece of 1920s glamour, this magnificent Art Deco diamond ring captures the essence of the era's refined elegance and geometric sophistication. Meticulously handcrafted in luxurious platinum, this original antique ring showcases superb craftsmanship and timeless style, making it a perfect choice for the connoisseur of fine vintage jewellery. At its heart lie three exceptional old brilliant-cut diamonds, each expertly collet set and glowing with a captivating fire and brilliance unique to antique stones. These are complemented by a halo of twelve old-cut diamonds, creating a striking plaque-style design so characteristic of the Art Deco period. Delicate millegrain edging adds to the ring's intricate detail, while the pierced octagonal setting embodies the architectural finesse of early 20th-century design. This is a ring of unmistakable presence, elegance, and charm – a true statement piece for the sophisticated wearer.
