Description

Description: A rare Royal Worcester porcelain figure, impressed with R for 1880, depicting a seated classical maiden in a draped brown robe with scattered gilded details. A gilt dove perches gently on her shoulder, and she holds a small stylised flower with an amber-toned centre in her right hand. This model exemplifies Worcester's exceptional attention to detail: from the carefully defined folds of the robe to the precise modelling of hands and facial features. The gilding is in remarkable condition, including the dove — which is typically worn in comparable examples. Dimensions: height 21.8 cm, width 8.5 cm, depth 11.5 cm Weight: 500 g Condition: Excellent. No damage or restoration. A rare and well-preserved figure. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them.
