Description

DESCRIPTION: Here we have an antique 18th century Joint Stool / Lamp stand / Occasional table, which is fantastic quality and good sturdy construction. The stool has been made in the traditional manner with pegged joints. The photographs do not do this any justice and do not convey the lovely rich colour of the stool. The top has been nicely shaped to the edge. It has a simple freeze below the top to all four sides. Then as you move down the stool legs are superbly turned and are a nice design, which sets it off beautifully. This stool could quite happily sit in the center of a room as all side are superb. To demonstrate this we have photographed all sides of the table. These stools could equally be used as occasional tables or lamp stands. DIMENSIONS: The approximate MAXIMUM dimensions are: - 17 1/4 inches (44 cm) wide. - 11 1/4 inches (28.5 cm) deep across legs and 10 1/2 inches (26.5 cm) deep across the top. - 18 1/8 inches (46 cm) high. AGE: The stool is circa 1800. CONDITION: From the photograph you can see that this is a superb stool which are in lovely condition just minor knocks / marks / shrinkage lines commensurate with age and careful use as would b...
