Description

A good Georgian mahogany snap-top wine table dating from the early 19th Century. It has a circular mahogany one-piece top on a turned support with tripod legs and pad feet. It has a nice rich colour and is strong and sturdy with a good level top. It is in good condition for its age. There have been a couple of old repairs to the legs which have not affected the table structurally or aesthetically. There are signs of age and use, some minor surface marks and knocks but no major damages and it displays well. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
