Description

A good quality mahogany open bookcase dating from the early to mid 19th Century. It is an attractive waterfall design with four stepped shelves supported by turned columns. It has a decorative carved pediment along the top of the bookcase and matching scrolling brackets bordering the top shelf. The bookcase has a mahogany back and stands on a plinth base. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. The mahogany has a lovely rich colour and it has developed a beautiful patina. There are some minor signs of age and use, a few marks and knocks and a couple of old repairs around the base but nothing detrimental and no major damages. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
