Description

Exceptionally fine and rare pair of blue cased crystal champagne flutes designed by Otto Prutscher (1880-1949). Originally produced circa 1905-1910 by Meyr's Neffe and retailed by E. Bakalowits Söhne, these later 20thC editions are made by the renowned firm of Moser, based in the Czech Republic. Moser acquired Meyr's Neffe in the mid-1920s. Even these later editions are painfully rare. Approx. height 20cms. Condition is exceptional: never used, and compete with original Moser stickers. No damage. No repairs. A pair of very rare and fine drinking glasses after a design by a leading member of the Wiener Werkstätte and produced by the renowned firm of Moser of the Czech Republic.
