Description

Vintage 8-Day Smiths Military MOD Bakelite Office Mess Mantel Clock : KA 1356 ALL OUR CONTACT INFORMATION IS LISTED UNDER 'BUSINESS SELLER INFORMATION' DESCRIPTION: Here we have an excellent example of a military marked 8-day clock by Smiths, in a bakelite case. This pendulum clock is fully marked on the dial with a prominent broad arrow, and on the inside of the door is another broad arrow mark with the number 310, it is also fully marked on inside of the case with 'KA 1356'. The clock comes with its original pendulum and 'SMITHS ENFIELD' marked key. From 1938 the Smiths Enfield name was used on clocks but from c1952 all clocks were simply marked Smiths and the Enfield name was lost indicating this clock was made between 1938 and 1952 and as such is likely to have been used in WW2. To the rear is the door to access the movement. The door is open and closed by a catch. The movement is nice and clean, as can be seen from the photographs, and is in perfect working order. The movement is stamped with with the 'SMITHS MADE IN GT BRITAIN BY THE ENFIELD CLOCK CO LTD 5210'. In addition this clock comes complete with it's winding key and pendulum.
