Description

A truly elegant Edwardian negligé pendant necklace, finely crafted in 18ct white gold and set with three vibrant amethysts and two delicate seed pearls — a superb example of early 20th-century design and craftsmanship. At the centre sits a cushion-cut amethyst of rich purple hue, from which two asymmetrical pear-shaped amethyst drops are gracefully suspended on slender knife-edge bars, forming the classic negligé style so favoured in the Edwardian era. The drops are subtly adorned with seed pearls, adding a touch of gentle lustre and refinement. The pendant is fixed to an integral fine curb link chain, which fastens with a traditional spring clasp. This piece hangs beautifully when worn — elegant, refined, and unmistakably antique. Top amethyst: 10mm x 8mm Drop amethysts: 16mm and 14mm in length Necklace drop: 26cm Chain length: 41cm Tested: 18ct gold Weight: 4.7 grams Date: Circa 1910 Condition: Exceptional original condition Presentation: Supplied in the box shown Reference: 23261 A splendid collector's piece or a graceful addition to any antique jewellery lover's collection.
