Description

A fine pair of Art Deco era good quality silver plated cake or dessert servers c1930. The servers are well plated in silver, giving a quality luxury impression. The handles feature a lined and reeded design typical of Art Deco. And each server features a geometric punched out design also typical of Art Deco. The servers are probably intended for serving cake, patisserie and flans or tarts. They come in their original white satin lined box. Excellent condition, and useful. Dimension given is for the larger of the pair.
