Description

This is a wonderful antique carved oak Welsh Coffer Bach which dates to circa 1780. The piece has been made out of the most wonderful oak which has a lovely rich patina which can only be gained through age but unfortunately the photographs do not do it justice. The coffer bach is of lovely small proportions and the top is of a simple two plank construction which lifts off. The coffer bach has two beautifully carved panels below the top and then there are two drawers below which have also been nicely carved. This is an very heavy piece making it a nice sturdy piece of furniture. The coffer bach has all the features you would expect from an early piece such as pegged joint and wear. This piece could be used in many room in the home and add an air of elegance wherever it is placed. In addition to being used as a coffer bach this could equally be used as a lamp stand with useful storage. The approximate MAXIMUM dimensions are: - 24 3/4 inches (63 cm) wide. - 14 1/2 inches (37 cm) deep - 16 1/4 inches (41.5 cm) high As can be seen from the above dimensions this coffer bach is of lovely small proportions. CONDITION: From the photographs you can see that this is an...
