Description

A fine quality Victorian oval sewing table, constructed from beautifully figured walnut and features exquisite marquetry inlay, showcasing superior 19th century craftsmanship. The hinged oval top opens to reveal a fitted interior with multiple compartments for sewing tools and accessories, alongside a deep, fabric-lined work bag below. The turned spiral legs and decorative stretcher base provide both elegance and structural stability. The table is mounted on original porcelain castors for easy movement, making it as functional as it is decorative. Circa 1870
