Description

A Georgian mahogany three tier whatnot, the adjustable rising top with detachable bookrest, above a single drawer with dovetailed linings, turned uprights either side of the two bottom trays terminating in bold brass castors. There is a fitted ink drawer that slides out and forward so the top can also be used to write on. Fine quality timber and a great design which leads us to think it could possibly be by Gillows of Lancaster. In excellent original condition throughout. English Circa 1825.
