Description

A rare Liberty and Co solid walnut writing desk with inset gold tooled leather writing surface. The top gallery features Mashrabiya decoration and the style of the desk is attributed to Christopher Dresser. The upper section features two drawers: one fitted for writing implements and the other has a Liberty and Co paper label. The lower section has lockable drawers to the right-hand side with original working locks and a key. Original brown porcelain castors. Good condition with only minor blemishes to the original patinated surface and very slight warping to the writing surface.
