Description

A charming writing desk from the Edwardian era, crafted from rich mahogany and satinwood. The piece is beautifully hand-painted with delicate ribbons, floral sprays, and garlands, adding a touch of romantic elegance. It features a mirrored back framed by twin cupboards, all set beneath a finely detailed brass gallery. The base includes a fold-out writing surface with a spacious drawer underneath for convenient storage. Raised on graceful tapering legs and united by a lower stretcher for added stability.
