Description

Antique Indian Pierced Bronze Incense Burner with Bird Motif. This striking Antique Indian Pierced Bronze Incense Burner is a richly detailed piece of traditional metalwork, blending symbolic artistry with refined craftsmanship. Featuring a wide, domed lid with intricate openwork and a finely cast pair of parrots perched atop the finial, this burner evokes themes of beauty, grace, and cultural symbolism deeply rooted in Indian heritage. The base of the vessel is supported by three elaborately sculpted peacocks with outstretched wings, forming a tripod stand that is as decorative as it is functional. The upper rim of the bowl is adorned with a finely engraved floral band, complementing the pierced lid's pattern that allows incense smoke to escape in a slow, aromatic swirl. Features: Material: Solid cast bronze with a warm, aged patina. Design: Lid features pierced foliate designs with dual parrot finial; base supported by three sculpted peacocks. Function: Lid is removable, suitable for burning incense or as a decorative accent piece. Approximate Dimensions: Height: 25 cm. Diameter: 19 cm. Condition: Good antique condition with natural patina and minor oxidation consis...
