Description

Expertly crafted in early 19th century North Wales style, this oak corner cabinet boasts unique part glazed upper doors and a small gallery shelf amongst other larger shelves. Sitting on ogee bracket feet and this cabinet is not only a functional storage solution, but also a beautiful addition to any space. Still retaining its original ebony nobs to both parts this cabinet is in great condition and colour for its age and still boasts previous courier or retail labels. Top cabinet has lockable door with key. Item separates into 2 pieces for easier handling.
