Description

This beautiful early 19th century Ridgway porcelain cabinet plate is a fine example. It has a circular white central panel finely hand painted with English garden flowers in bright colours with a gilt work and cream boarder. The shaped and moulded edge has a dark royal blue ground with very fine gilt decoration. The raised and moulded edge is balanced with the cream colour seen in the central boarder. A superb piece of early English porcelain, in excellent original condition with no restoration, circa 1825. Height 22cm x width 22 cm x depth 2cm
