Description

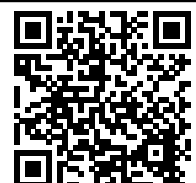

A fine example of 18th-century craftsmanship, this impressive antique oak mule chest features a hinged lid—retaining its original iron hinges—that opens to reveal a spacious interior. The front is decorated with four fielded panels above two fitted drawers, each finished with brass drop handles. Raised on shaped bracket feet, the piece displays a rich, consistent colour throughout and offers both charm and functionality. Item Ref; M-6170 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 97cm / Width – 137cm / Depth – 61.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition overall, with expected signs of age and use. There is surface wear in places, including age-related marks and scratches throughout the piece. The chest is very heavy, reflecting its solid 18th-century construction. The lid shows staining, splitting, and evidence of a historical repair. There is also some loss to one of the drawers, all consistent with the age and character of the piece. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home.
