Description

This is a good pair of early 19th Century cut glass decanters and stoppers of mallet shape dating from around 1830. The shoulders and necks are deeply cut and engraved with flower swags, with hob nail cut sides and star cut bases. A very attractive pair in very good useable condition, only one minor chip to rim as photographed. The decanters are heavy in weight and measure 24 cms high by 14 cms in diameter. UK delivery is £15
