Description

A late 18th early 19th century Oak settle bench. Shaped panelled back for two people. Open elbow arm supports and shaped front cabriole legs with claw feet. The front seat rail shows delicate chip carving details. The padded seat, while still in good usable condition, might benefit from an upgrade for aesthetic purposes. Historical small split in the lower middle back panel and two water marks on the seat which are imperfections that can be expected with genuine antiques. Overall dimensions Width 100cm Depth 68.5cm Height 111cm Seat depth 50cm Seat height 44cm
