Description

A substantial and elegant French antique pine wardrobe dating from around 1915. It features two panelled doors on external hinges, allowing them to open fully and close neatly against a central pillar. The wardrobe stands on attractive bracket feet and remains in excellent condition for its age. The right-hand door is fitted with a lock. The left door is secured with bolts, though it does have a keyhole — we can fit a lock here as well if you wish. Currently offered in bare wood. Available for £1,150 as-is, or £1,297 waxed. Both prices include the fitting of a new brass hanging rail. Given the impressive height (87"), we recommend considering a shelf near the top, with the rail positioned below. Let us know if you'd like this included. This wardrobe fully dismantles for delivery, making it suitable for access up any stairway. We can deliver and assemble in most parts of the UK — simply provide your postcode for a quote. Dimensions: Height: 87" Width: 70" Depth: 25.5" Internal depth: 22" (ample space for even the largest coats and suits) Please note: this is a very tall wardrobe — do check your ceiling height.
