Description

A magnificent, stunning, fine and impressive antique 14.31 carat diamond and platinum Art Deco bracelet; part of our diverse statement diamond jewellery collection. This magnificent, fine and impressive antique Art Deco diamond bracelet has been crafted in platinum. The articulated bracelet is composed of three elongated, articulated pierced decorated setting arrays, alternating with circular-shaped links, all in the Art Deco style. Each elongated setting is embellished with a central claw set marquise cut diamond, flanked in a linear array with collet set baguette cut diamonds, terminating with a triangular cut diamond. Either end of the linear formation bears two baguette cut diamonds, collet set in a herringbone, chevron style design. The central design of each elongated setting is encompassed with seventy pavé set transitional modern brilliant round cut diamonds, creating a paralleling border. The rounded links are each embellished with two further marquise cut diamonds, in addition to a lozenge cut diamond, all collet set in a horizontal formation. The central collar design incorporates twenty-six further pavé set transitional modern brilliant round cut diamonds.
