Description

A superb Georgian tilt-top table dating from the late 18th / early 19th Century made from Fruitwood. It has a circular planked top standing on a turned baluster support with tripod splayed legs and pad feet. It has a lovely rich colour and is strong and sturdy with a good level top. The tilting mechanism is smooth with its original blacksmith-made catch. It is in good condition for its age and displays beautifully. There are some minor signs of age and use, a few small surface marks, minor splits and light knocks but nothing detrimental and it is strong and sturdy. There has been a small patched repair on the top surface (see photo) which just adds to its character and patina. The table has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
