Description

PAUL SIEFFERT (1874 – 1957) Oil on canvas A superb large signed oil on canvas by the French painter of nudes, Paul Sieffert. The work is signed lower right and unlined on its original canvas and is numbered 736 verso in the artist's oeuvre of work. A beautiful example of the painter's work. This particular posture, being his most valued and sought-after paintings, A recent very similar painting from the same series and posture sold in June 2024 Germany for 15,000 euros hammer + 30% BP. (last Image) The painting is a delicate back view of a beautiful woman, lying on a light fur rug, in front of a faun wall. The woman draws her legs and back forward and rests her head on her arm. Sieffert was a figure and nude painter who learned painting in the studio of Jean-Léon Gérôme (1824-1904). His paintings are characterised by their delicate colour palette, precise depiction of anatomy, and the uniformity of his subjects. He became a prolific nude painter in his later years. Numbered his works. The similar painting that sold in 2024 was pastel under glass number 180. (Last Image) Ours is oil on canvas, number 736. Portrait and nude painter, student of Gérôme. He received the R...
