Description

A pair of antique porcelain candlesticks produced in the Dresden workshop of Karl Richard Klemm around 1895. Marked beneath with the underglaze crowned "RK Dresden" monogram, officially registered in 1888. Each piece is hand-painted with floral sprigs and enriched with finely executed gilded scrollwork over a white ground. The base and collar feature the distinctive green "fishnet" motif, outlined with gold and trimmed with a gilt lattice border — characteristic of Dresden Neoclassical revival taste. These candlesticks reflect the high craftsmanship of the period and are notable for their balance of elegance and restraint. Works by Karl Richard Klemm are widely recognized among collectors for their quality and artistic merit. Condition: One tiny, barely noticeable chip on the base of one candlestick. Otherwise, excellent antique condition – complete preservatio...
