Description

This is a very attractive, totally original 18th century country dresser. The timber looks to be elm and has a superb patina that has been created over the last 200+ years. The scale of the piece is fabulous and the design is a little different to normal with the columned legs. The plate rack sits sturdily on top of the base and all drawers run smoothly. The whole piece is in solid condition with wear and marks consistent with age. Traces of historic worm but all treated now. Height 223cm Width 189cm Depth 40cm Price includes UK mainland delivery
