Description

DESCRIPTION This is an attractive set of four Louis XVI-style late 19th/ early 20th century French walnut and parcel gilt side chairs. Each with an arched back, stop-fluted tapering supports and all-over carved detail with parcel gilt highlights. The back and seat upholstered in pale gold silk damask. One with a label on the back for a Christie's auction, 1989. DIMENSIONS 97cm high x 55cm wide x 62cm deep CONDITION There are light knocks and wear to frames. There are some very tiny chips and losses including several finials. There is light wear and marks to upholstery and one chair has a couple of larger stains. The joints are sound and overall the chairs are in relatively good order. DESCRIPTIONS & VIEWING Our ethos is openness and honesty. We make every effort to provide a full and accurate description of an item's condition but ultimately this, alongside our interpretation of materials, attribution, age, date, origin and provenance, are our statement of opinion. Viewing and inspection is welcomed before purchase and offers buyers the fullest opportunity to investigate an item thoroughly. Please ask us to double check measurements if there are any critical dimen...
