Description

Bronze Sculpture of a Running Greyhound Dog – early 20th Century Capture the essence of speed, grace, and agility with this finely crafted 20th-century bronze sculpture of a running Greyhound. Rendered in stunning detail, this dynamic piece showcases the lean, muscular form of the elegant Greyhound mid-stride, poised with intensity and motion. The artist's skill is evident in the lifelike anatomical precision, from the ripple of muscles beneath the skin to the powerful extension of limbs in motion. Set on a textured, naturalistic bronze base with a hammered finish, the sculpture conveys a palpable sense of movement and energy – a timeless tribute to one of the fastest and most graceful breeds. Whether displayed in a study, library, or living space, this bronze Greyhound makes a bold and sophisticated statement. It's perfect for dog lovers, collectors of animalier bronzes, or anyone with an appreciation for fine craftsmanship and classic design. Features: Medium: Bronze Subject: Greyhound in full stride Era: early 20th Century, circa 1930's Condition: Excellent condition with warm, rich patina Mounted on a textured, oval base This is more than just a decorative ...
